

Rugged American Contractor

* Shown with optional material rack in Rugged American black powder coat finish and optional rear combination ICC receiver tube rear finish.

Rugged and Versatile

- The Rugged American Contractor comes standard with 1/8" steel treadplate.
- All metal body components are completely encased in ABC's Body Armor™ featuring E-Coat primer and powder coat finish coat to offer the toughest finish in the industry and maximum rust resistance protection.

Contractor

Versatile and Strong...

Options:

- Rear hitch package and connection plug
- Fifth wheel/gooseneck hitch
- Overhead material rack
- Bulkhead mounted tail lights

Body available in lengths of 9', 10' and 12' for dual wheel application.

1/8" Steel safety treadplate welded to crossmembers with external stake pockets designed with 2" outside tie rail.

Bulkhead grid window design with tapered bulkhead for ship through. (Bulkhead lights also available.)

Rugged American Body Armor™ acrylic primer and powder coat on all metal body components. It resists impact, cuts and gouges and has a refined, consistent grain textured surface.

2 Heavy-duty 36" underbody toolboxes and 2 steel 96" top boxes with black powder coat finish (96" aluminum top boxes available).

3" Formed steel crossmembers. 4 Full width forward of ca. and 2 full width after of ca. 4" 11 Gauge formed steel longitudinal body rails. Optional: 4" structural steel for goosneck tow package.

Rear steel construction drop-down tailgate with holding chain and full rear light cluster drop apron. Shown with optional combination ICC and receiver tube bumper.

LOCATIONS	Columbus, OH Cleveland, OH	Portland, OR Louisville, KY Tampa, FL	Washington, DC Philadelphia, PA	LaGrange, TX Denver, PA	Pontiac, MI Suffolk, VA	WARRANTY 800.872.2831	PARTS 877.349.1222	CUSTOMER SERVICE 800.872.4583
------------------	-------------------------------	---	------------------------------------	----------------------------	----------------------------	---------------------------------	------------------------------	---